ELDI 360

What is it?

A powerful research-based instrument originally developed as the Strategic Leader Development Inventory (SLDI).

Examines 16 qualities found to be critical to high-level leadership and management effectiveness.

Draws on a candidate's self-assessment together with the observations of the candidate's present or former superiors, peers, and reports - up to 4 superiors, 6 peers and 8 reports, and optionally includes external raters.

Covers positive and negative aspects of executive performance (some would call this EQ).
